Scattered throughout the landscape are several small, rustic huts with steeply pitched, thatched roofs made of dried palm fronds. The huts are built on sandy ground, and some have small wooden platforms or steps leading to their entrances. In the lower right, there is a small, open-sided structure with a thatched roof, possibly a lounge or a small bar. The overall atmosphere is serene and tropical. Our Story

MEET ROBYN ISHERWOOD

FOUNDER & CEO OF ENCORE LIFESTYLE

Hello, I am Robyn Isherwood, the founder and CEO of Encore Lifestyle, and I possess an innate talent for bringing dreams to life. With a career spanning over 15 years, I've had the privilege of immersing myself in the world of luxury events and experiences.

My journey began in London's elite events industry, where I trained and honed my skills at prestigious firms such as The Admirable Crichton, GSP & Lillingston. These early experiences paved the way for me to create exceptional events in iconic destinations worldwide, from the glamorous streets of St Tropez to the enchanting landscapes of Tuscany and Hong Kong's bustling metropolis.

My role as the Head of Luxury Events and subsequent appointment as the Director of Lifestyle by Lillingston allowed me to grasp the essence of what my clients truly desire. In 2019, I embarked on a new adventure by launching RJI Consultancy, where I expanded my repertoire to include consultancy projects, private events, and bespoke lifestyle concierge services.

When the world faced unprecedented challenges during the pandemic, my creativity knew no bounds and I conceived the UK's first socially distanced festival Gisborne Park Pop Up, which garnered global acclaim. This monumental success paved the way for another triumphant event, The Estate festival, just before the world reopened in 2021.

With the world beckoning once more, I proudly introduced Encore Lifestyle, a manifestation of my unwavering dedication to crafting unforgettable, luxurious experiences. My career has been a passionate pursuit of creating moments of sheer opulence, and Encore Lifestyle is where my artistic vision thrives, offering a world of unparalleled memories.
